She is a bold and blessed girl from Indiana, who started her journey in her garage as a creative DIY'er, evolved to a Brick and Mortar store and she is now the "how to" business coach!

She has built a thriving business and now teaches women how to turn their passion and purpose into a business of their own.

She finds great joy in serving, encouraging and helping others through her public pages, website and her coaching services.

She is a wife, mom & grandmother! She loves Jesus, Coffee and scrolling Pinterest! She believes that staying true to who she is sets her apart.
